

Hamilton's Method

1. Divide total population by number of seats. This is the standard divisor.
2. Divide each population by the standard divisor. This is the standard quota.
3. Round each standard quota down. This is the lower quota.
4. Add one seat to the states, from largest decimal part of the standard quota to smallest, until all seats are given out.